Mergolds Want Games.
The Mergolds baseball team has organized for the season, and would like to hear from uniformed teams of the District of Columbia and Virginia for Sunday and holiday games. This team is composed of players recruited from the employees of Goldenberg and the Merchants' Transfer and Storage Company, and is known to have a fast combination. Address challenges to manager base ball team, 920 E street northwest.

Coach Harry Arnts of Detroit University makes the remarkable statement that his material is so good that he finds it almost impossible to cut down his squad. Perhaps batting against Slater or a few other western stars will cause Arnts to change his mind about the team's ability.

YANKS HAVE BUT TWO BOXMEN AVAILABLE FOR OPENING GAME

Warhop and Fisher Only Twirlers Donovan Will Be Able to Use—Johnson Sure to Pitch for Nationals.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

Either Jack Warhop or Ray Fisher will pitch against Walter Johnson in the opening game tomorrow. This announcement was made by Manager Donovan of the Yankees this morning.

Warhop and Fisher are the only two pitchers available. Caldwell is not ready to pitch, Keating is down with the grip and King Cole is to be operated on for a tumor of the groin today or tomorrow. It seems that Cole has been afflicted in this way for more than a year, but he waited until the season was about to open before he consulted a surgeon to have the tumor removed.

Donovan says his team is in pretty fair shape. "High and Pipp are both playing nice ball and should improve as they go along," Donovan said. "Of the other new youngsters but one will be retained. He is Tamm, an infielder, whom Dick Rudolph recommended to me, and he is going to make a great ball player some day. Caldwell has come out of the work in his back which is preventing him from working and Keating and Cole are on the hospital list, but they will be around in due time."

Manager Donovan made a trip to the ball park early this morning. The Yankees' new uniforms have been shipped here and will be worn for the first time tomorrow, and Donovan went to the park to straighten out this matter and incidentally to arrange for having his team work out this afternoon. Manager Griffith will not consent to have the grounds used unless they have thoroughly dried out, because he does not want to take any chances of having them roughed up for tomorrow's game.

"Walter Johnson will pitch the opening game tomorrow unless something unforeseen happens," said Manager Griffith this morning. "Walter took a long workout yesterday morning and did not don a uniform in the afternoon. He may loosen up his arm a trifle this morning, but he is to be on edge for the opening game."

There is hardly a chance for Chico Gandil to break into the line-up opening day, though he is very anxious to get into the line-up. He has been in the line-up to get into the game under a handicap, and he is willing to wait a few days and give Chico's arm a chance to mend.

Ray Morgan, however, is ready to take his position at second base. He has been playing well since he was outplayed by his rivals consistently while the pitching on the whole has proved the Griffith not only has a strong pitching staff, but that it is in good form and apt to help give the Nationals a flying start in the race.

It is questionable whether any other major league teams have been up against stronger opposition than the Nationals. Five of the strongest teams in the rival league have been their opponents, including the world champion Braves, and a large majority of the games have been won. This is an exceptionally good showing, speaks well for the team's strength, and gives promise of a good start in the championship struggle which opens tomorrow.

Howard Shanks got back in the line-up yesterday and distinguished himself by hitting for a single and a triple and walking once in four trips to the plate. Shanks is sure to play in the opening game tomorrow, and furthermore, he may return in left field, where he is a batting slump, for when Shanks is hitting he has but few equals in value to any outfielder.

It is believed that in due time, when Rondeau has regained the full strength in his injured leg, he will prove the most valuable man for left field because of his ability to hit, but Shanks undoubtedly will try hard to prevent his being benched for a long time.

John McGraw did not hesitate to say after yesterday's game that Clark Griffith has a very useful ball team. "Washington has one of the best teams in the league," said the Giants' manager. "Of that I have been convinced. The two youngsters who pitched against us showed sufficient form to assure their making good, and I understand he has a lot of good pitchers in addition to these. My team will get going in a little while, but we are coming fast."

Hans Lobert has not been in such good condition in many years as he is this spring. The speed marvel is something like fifteen pounds lighter than he has been in some years.

Al Smith's home run in the seventh inning came with none out, and was the longest hit made on the local grounds in a little while. The ball was hit terrifically, and went very high, hitting the bleachers on the first bound.

Murray, who was playing well over toward center for Al Smith, had to take a long spring to reach the ball, and Al Smith scored without the slightest trouble.

ROYALS WIN PENNANT IN DISTRICT LEAGUE

The Royals won the championship in the District Bowling League last night when they took three straight games from the Newcomers and made it impossible for the Jeds to catch them in the remaining part of the schedule. The Royals won easily, getting a good margin in each contest. They took the first by 123 to 65, the second by 207 to 456 and the third by 457 to 467.

BELMONT NOT TO RACE ON MARYLAND TRACKS

Trainer Hildreth to Show String for First Time on New York Course.

NEW YORK, April 13.—August Belmont will not race any of his thoroughbreds at the coming Havre de Grace meeting, and it is extremely unlikely that he will appear at the Jockey Club will appear at the Pimlico course.

S. C. Hildreth, who is in charge of the Belmont races, said he preferred to give his horses a slow and careful preparation for the campaign in the spring. "There will be plenty of racing in New York state," he said, "and I think it best to wait until the Belmont Park opening. Last year I sent the Belmont horses to the races early in the spring, and when it came to the fall meetings in Maryland, Piltzgold was the only horse which was in good racing condition."

Hildreth has eighteen thoroughbreds under his care at Shesham Bay, and lovers of cross-country sport will be interested to learn that Mission is back in training. This mare won the Whitely Memorial steeplechase handicap at Piping Rock last year, and she is expected to probably Prevail to that she had demonstrated her ability as a timber-topper by capturing the Sportsman and International steeplechase handicaps.

Hallenbeck's Sandstone Dies.
Sandstone, a three-year-old son of Rock Sandstone, recently purchased by H. C. Hallenbeck from John B. Madden, died at the Hallenbeck winter quarters at Shrewsbury shortly after his arrival from Kentucky. This colt raced only fairly well in 1914, but when it came to the fall meetings, Hallenbeck considered him a $4,000 prospect.

He contracted pneumonia during the trip from Kentucky, and died three days later. A number of two-year-olds that were shipped at the same time reached the farm in good condition, but all have recovered.

JOE JACKSON HAS COLLAPSE

Has Lost Fifteen Pounds in Ten Days—May Be Out of Oper.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 13.—Joe Jackson, Cleveland's hard-hitting outfielder, may not be in the line-up on opening day at Detroit. A season of hard storming, and a southern tour, followed by family troubles, is telling on Joe, who has suffered a nervous collapse and looks but a shadow of himself. Within the last ten days he has lost fifteen or twenty pounds in weight as the result of not eating and of brooding over his troubles.

In an effort to get in shape after his lay-off of nearly two weeks he worked throughout Saturday's game and looked like the same old Joe. Twice he sent Senor back to the left field fence to catch a long drive. He got a single and a triple his other two times and stole third base. As soon as the game was over, though, he went to bed, being unable to eat. He was feeling somewhat better the next day and said he would leave for Detroit tomorrow.

The catching staff also is crippled. Ben Egan is suffering from a spike wound above the knee. Steve O'Neill has a torn finger. Rev Devost has been the victim of numerous accidents all year, leaving Josh Hillings as the only Indian receiver who is perfectly free from injuries.

Tigers Defeated by Yankees.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 13.—The New York Americans defeated Princeton here yesterday, 11 to 2. Both the college pitchers were hit hard and received poor support. A home run by Douglas was the feature from the college's viewpoint. Score:

New York..... 11 0 2
Princeton..... 2 5 7
Brown, Piel and Pickering, Schwert; Chaplin, Straw and Kelleher.

Phillips Trim Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 13.—The Philadelphia National League team made a clean sweep in a two-game series with the Providence (International League) club by winning yesterday, 10 to 3. The score:

Philadelphia..... 10 0 3
Providence..... 3 7 5
Demaree and Adams; Scott, Schultz and Koehler.

BARRON, FORMER NATIONAL, FANS 19 M. A. C. BATTERS

BY H. C. BYRD.

"Lefty" Barron, the former Washington American League pitcher, did some remarkable work in his game for West Virginia University yesterday against the Maryland Agricultural College. Barron knew entirely too much about the art and science of pitching for the college boys that faced him, which was shown by their weak efforts against his offerings. When everything is summed up, it is doubtful if there has been a ball game this season in which a pitcher has accomplished as much against his opponents as did Barron.

In the first place, Barron did not allow a hit until the ninth inning. In the Farmers' half of that period Perkins dumped a Texas leaguer to right field, and with one exception, Bopps's two-base drive in the tenth was the only hard-hit ball. Everything was a weak roller dumped in the infield or a pop fly. In the ten innings Barron struck out nineteen men. In one inning he did not fan any batter, but in the ninth and tenth he struck out six.

It was simply a case of a man who had professional experience pitching against a rather green college team, and the result was little more than could have been expected. West Virginia is to play Georgetown today and the Navy tomorrow. It is interesting to note that the visitors say they have a hurler almost as good as Barron to put in against the Blue and Gray, and it is stated that Barron will work again tomorrow against the Midshipmen.

Incidentally, Derrick, former Business High School boy, pitched a nice game for the Farmers, and really should have won, as both the Farmers' and the Nationals' pitchers were given by West Virginia should have been scored. Derrick allowed only six safeties and struck out ten.

The Western High team went down yesterday before the Stray Strays. College, Nolan, pitching for Strayer's, allowed the High School team only one run, and Nolan made by Peine. Nolan fanned eight men.

Brewer hit the ball well for Strayer's, having a triple, a double and a single out of the three trips to the plate.

Charley Hickman, who used to play in the outfield for the Washington American League club some years ago, is a single at the university hospital, and it is said that his condition is critical.

Central and the Lincoln Athletic Club are to meet today at the Rosedale playground diamond. Lincoln defeated Western last night, and Central will try to make a better showing than did its scholastic rival.

The West Virginia team is not essentially a strong one.

PERTINENT COMMENT ON HAPPENINGS IN SPORTS

By J. ED GRILLO.

For some unaccountable reason Clark Griffith is constantly being quoted in the papers of rival cities as being confident of winning the pennant and the world series, though in the matter of expressing his opinion as to what his team will do, Griffith is most conservative and has never made any claims for it.

The New York Tribune of this morning says in a story written by its staff correspondent with the Giants: "Clark Griffith, the well known optimist, says the Senators will win the American League pennant and the world championship, so there may be consolation for the New York rooters in the fact that these heroes defeated the Giants by a score of 4 to 3."

It is perhaps needless to say that Manager Griffith has at no time made any such boastful statements, yet he is constantly being quoted as having done so by individuals who have never even spoken to him. The only legitimate claim for the American League pennant made to date comes from Boston. There they claim both pennants. And the world series probably will be a dead heat.

That Brooklyn-Buffalo Fed game of Saturday must have been a jewel. It lasted nearly four hours, and everybody in a uniform was put into the game at some time or another. Rules were broken, and the game was a bit of a mess. For instance, Land was put into the game to bat for a pitcher. Then Howard was put in to pitch. Then Howard was put in to pitch. Then Howard was put in to pitch.

show considerable change in its work if it expects to make any sort of a showing in the coming race. The team which was reported to have been strengthened has won but few exhibition games from the minor league teams. It has to get the best of the prospects of making a good start in the race are decidedly slim.

Last season the Pirates, after getting a runaway start in the race, were one of the bitter disappointments of the year. A better season was hoped this year, but judged from the miserable work of the team during its exhibition season it is lacking more than ever before.

Fleider Jones never overlooks an opportunity to take a fall out of Clark Griffith for having induced Walter Johnson to remain in Washington to play for the organized base ball. Jones charges that this practice of organized base ball is detrimental to the general interests of the game, but he seems to entirely forget that the Federal League was the one which inaugurated the system of stealing players, and that in signing Johnson after he had jumped to the Feds Griffith did nothing from a selfish standpoint.

Fleider Jones seems to have aged a great deal. All he does these days is cry and whine. Such a move on the part of the Feds to get the long end of the score in this contest than any other of the season. It is no secret that Catholic University has put forth some very determined efforts to make such arrangements that it might be able to take Georgetown's place in the Virginia schedule and bring to this city Virginia's football and base ball teams for annual games. Such a move on the part of the Brooklanders undoubtedly would be the greatest stroke of their athletic career, and would mean much for them financially and otherwise. It is well recognized that Virginia is the most important game on the Brooklanders' list. They will make greater efforts to get the long end of the score in this contest than any other of the season.

It will be well for the managers of the various teams to be present, as matters will be taken up of vital interest to all concerned with amateur ball. The chances are that no very important changes will take place, but it is desired that new opinions be having whereby ways and means for devising a successful season may be discussed.

Catholic University is scheduled to play the University of Virginia at Charlottesville Saturday, probably the most important game on the Brooklanders' list. They will make greater efforts to get the long end of the score in this contest than any other of the season. Such an action would not only be pleasing to the supporters of the Catholic University, but would also be a great financial success for the school. The Brooklanders' institution, it is probable there is no other school in the south so intimately concerned with Washington as Virginia, and it is certainly one that draws the largest crowds.

Georgetown is not entered to compete in the University of Virginia relay races. Earlier in the year it was generally thought that the Blue and Gray would take part in the competition, and in the list given out by the Penn authorities the local institution was mentioned as a probable competitor. For some reason the four has not been entered.

DETROIT—First-class infield, with experienced guardians of first and second sacks, "Old War Horse" Stange and return. The list of entries is not yet completed, but already four of the most widely known drivers in Alaska have entered the race. These are A. A. John Johnson, whose team of Siberian wolves set the record of seventy-four seconds in 1910, and won last year's race in eighty-one hours and three minutes, will not race this year.

The purse already amounts to $2,000, that amount having been raised at a series of Saturday night. This sum will be increased considerably, it is expected, by a vaudeville performance to be given tomorrow night. The indications are against lowering the record set by Johnson five years ago. Little doubt is that the winner will have a tendency toward making a slow course.

CHICAGO—Clarence Rowland, new manager, without big league experience. The Chicago team is expected to be on attack and defense, as well as in brain department. Hurling corps must show improvement. Chicago's uncertain proposition in league. Likely to make trouble for other clubs.

NEW YORK—New and aggressive manager, Bill Donovan, who landed Providence in the place of the Yankees in the league last year. Yankees not well balanced, but have good pitchers. Hard club to "dope." Not expected to win pennant this year.

Rational fashion.

The attempt to be original too often leads to exaggerations that are neither truly effective nor refined. That's not fashion—only a caricature of it.

But Perkins designers study the properties, as well as cater to the demand for originality—and every model they produce and every pattern employed reflects the greatest good taste; the highest type of tailoring craftsmanship.

Perkins' Clothes have that personal touch which means something in individuality.

ALASKA SWEEPSTAKES LISTED FOR TOMORROW

Half Dozen Dog Teams Race 412 Miles. Nome to Candle, and Return.

NOME, Alaska, April 13.—The 412-mile Alaska Sweepstake race for dog teams will start tomorrow, when half a dozen teams, each made up of from ten to eighteen dogs, drawing a racing sled and driven by the most expert drivers in the north, set out on the eighty-hour grind over the snow trail from Nome to Candle and return.
